Office of the Emperor

Decree XXXIV
Colonies

We, the Adammic Imperial Majesty, do hereby issue the following Decree, returning Our dormant and unneeded Colony of Creatuxia to the United Kingdom and upgrading Our Territorial Claim of Adammic Columbia to a Colony.

The Colony of Creatuxia and its government is hereby dissolved. All the land occupied by the Colony of Creatuxia shall be ceded back to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. The governor of Creatuxia, Sir Damian Parker, shall no longer hold the title of High Lord Overseer. Nonetheless, the land occupied by Creatuxia at this time shall continue to be known as an external location by the name of Creatuxia within the records of the Imperial Institute of Geography.

The Territorial Claim of Adammic Columbia shall henceforth hold the status of a Colony, and shall hold the relevant rights and responsibilities under the Supreme Directive and Our Imperial Decree XXV. Lord Sir Grant Hawkins shall be the Governor of the Colony and hold in that respect the styles he held as the Governor of the Territorial Claim.

This, the thirty-fourth Imperial Decree of Our Imperial Majesty Emperor Adam the First, is decreed at Primoria on the nineteenth day of April, two-thousand and fifteenth year of the Common Era and the third year of Our reign, and is signed into immediate effect.
