STATEMENT – Appointment of Deputy Speaker

Lord Speaker Sam Maude

Lord Speaker Sam Maude (RGA)

Honourable members of the House of Citizens. I hereby announce that in my role as Speaker of the House, I do appoint Emperor Adam I as Deputy Speaker. The honourable member shall deputise for me when and if I am unavailable.

H.I.M. Emperor Adam I (LMP)

I am very grateful, Lord Speaker. I believe that the principle of having chairs on both the government and opposition sides of the House is a sound one, and I look forward to working with you.

BUSINESS MOTION – Adoption of Standing Orders

His Imperial Majesty Emperor Adam I

Lord Speaker Sam Maude (RGA)

Order. We move now to the business motion on the Standing Orders tabled by His Imperial Majesty the Emperor. The question is that this House does adopt the proposed Standing Orders. The Standing Orders can be found attached. Debate shall last for 24 hours before moving to a vote. I call His Imperial Majesty the Emperor to move the motion.

H.I.M. Emperor Adam I (LMP)

Thank you Lord Speaker. The Standing Orders laid before the House are the result of fruitful discussion and consensus with voices from all parties. They will ensure that the House conducts its business in an orderly, organised and professional manner. The types of business provided for should cover all bases. Furthermore I hope the House will find the measures with respect to timetabling, voting and conduct to be sensible and fair. I commend the motion to the House.

Lady Anna Worthington (STM)

How would you like to be addressed?

Lord Speaker Sam Maude (RGA)

Mr. Speaker or Speaker, as stated in the Standing Orders.

Lord Colonel Asher Bond (STM)

Mr Speaker/Speaker, which do you prefer out of Mr Speaker/Speaker?

Lord Speaker Sam Maude (RGA)

Mr. Speaker.

Lord Colonel Asher Bond (STM)

As you wish, Mr. Speaker.

Lord Juliano Saunders (STM)

[the Emperor] called you Lord Speaker.
